

For information on museum hours, call the Museum on Main Street at (734) 662-9092 or visit www.washtenawhistory.org. To learn more about the League of Women Voters of the Ann Arbor Area, visit www.lwvannarbor.org.

SPECIAL THANKS TO EXHIBIT SPONSORS

- The League of Women Voters of the Ann Arbor Area
- Washtenaw County Historical Society & Museum – Judy Christman, Susan Nenadic, Pauline Walters
  - A2Ethics.org
  - Bob Behnke Company

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

- Doug & Zoe Behnke
  - Laura Bien
  - Tom Carpenter
- Professor Virginia Caruso
- Wayne Eaker – Zengenuity Web Development
- EMU Library – Kate Pittsley, Rosina Tammany
  - Professor Beverly Fish
- Linda Fitzgerald – Fitzgerald Communications
  - Becky & David Fox
  - Professor Liette Gidlow
  - Peter & Sharon Glushyn
    - Margaret Hiss
    - Jessica Heusinkveld
  - John Lawrence & Jeanine DeLay
    - Doug & Mary Kelley
- Library of Congress – Rosemary Hanes
- Steve Maggio – The Maggio Line, Advertising Art
  - Mike Nadeau – Affordable Computers
- U-M Bentley Historical Library – Karen Jania
- U-M Clements Library – JJ Jacobson, Clayton Lewis
  - Mary Lou Unterburger
  - Virginia VandenBroek
    - Helen Welford
    - Roland B. Winter
  - Ypsilanti Historical Library

League of Women Voters – Ann Arbor Area
 PO Box 3832 • Ann Arbor, MI 48106 • www.lwvannarbor.org

LIBERTY AWAKES IN WASHTENAW COUNTY

WHEN WOMEN WON THE VOTE

Mrs. Daniel L. Quirk, Jr. of Ypsilanti, founder of the Ypsilanti Equal Suffrage Association in 1912

A Multifaceted Look at the Local Suffrage Movement

January 8 – February 27, 2011

The Museum on Main Street
 500 North Main • Ann Arbor